Mission Statement:

St. Joseph-Scollard Hall Catholic Secondary School is a Christ-centered learning community: a community of love for, and service to, God and others. Consistent with our motto, Spiritu Virtute Scientia, our goal is to create an environment that will support the intellectual and spiritual growth of the student, developing leaders who are rooted in Gospel Values and committed to meeting the challenges of building a just society.

Special Features:

- French Immersion programme
- Ontario Secondary School Literacy results are consistently in the top 5 in Northern Ontario
- St. Joseph-Scollard Hall (SJSH) was created in 1985 through the merger of Scollard Hall (boys) and St. Joseph/St. Mary's Academy (girls)
- Very active student body, especially with charity work
- Multi-million dollar renovation to sports facilities – synthetic turf and newly resurfaced track
